The DEERFIELD FAIR 4-H programs are part of the New Hampshire 4-H program. 4-H members are the sole responsibility of their parent/guardian during the entire fair. This code of conduct is expected for the entire time a 4-Her is at DEERFIELD FAIR. Participation in the DEERFIELD FAIR is dependent on the agreement to the following expectations:

4-H MEMBERS shall show respect for the property and facilities used during the DEERFIELD FAIR and assume financial responsibility for any damage they may cause.

4-H MEMBERS shall not use nor possess drugs, tobacco, or alcoholic beverages.

4-H MEMBERS shall conduct themselves at all times in a manner appropriate to the standards and image of the 4-H program. Youths shall represent 4-H and their project to the general public in a positive way, helping inform them about 4-H and agriculture. Actions must reflect the highest standards of honor and integrity and best practices relating to their animal project. No type of animal abuse will be tolerated.

We have read and understand the basic 4-H rules in the 4-H section of the fair book and overall Deerfield Fair rules for exhibitors. We understand that a failure to comply shall result in the 4-H member being expelled from DEERFIELD FAIR, premiums being withheld, and/or permission to exhibit in future years at 4-H Shows or Fairs can also be withheld. We authorize Rockingham County 4-H to have and use any photographs/slides/videos/etc. taken at DEERFIELD FAIR of contestants/animals/projects.
